Cohen & Company Named One of Nation's "Best Accounting Firms to Work For"

Honored for Fourth Consecutive Year

CLEVELAND, Ohio – Cohen & Company has been nationally recognized as one of 2011's "Best Accounting Firms to Work For" by Accounting Today magazine and Best Companies Group. The firm has been honored in each of the four years since the award was established.

Dedication to its employees and a disciplined company culture grounded in service, quality, innovation and fun—known to the firm's employees as SQIF—are key to the overall business strategy of Cohen & Company and to its employees' happiness.

"We are honored to be recognized with this award, and attribute it to our great people. They are the reason our clients receive such enthusiastic and technically superior service," said Randy Myeroff, president & CEO of Cohen & Company. "We do everything in our power to provide our staff with a growth-oriented, empowering and fun environment. I'm humbled by the breadth and depth of our employees' talent and see this recognition as motivation to be even better in the future."

The Best Accounting Firms to Work for annual survey and award program was designed to identify, recognize and honor the best places of employment in the accounting industry. The list is made up of a total of 100 companies nationwide, split into three groups based on size. The two-part survey process includes an evaluation of Cohen & Company's workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics; and an employee survey to measure the employee experience. The combined scores determined the top firms and the final ranking.
