Cohen & Company Recognized as 2011 Cascade Capital Business Growth Winner

CLEVELAND, Ohio – Cohen & Company has been honored once again as a winner of the 2011 Cascade Capital Business Growth award. The award recognizes companies from a seven-county region that have achieved superior growth in sales or employment over the past five years.

“The fact that we have been able to continue to grow and enhance our client service offerings over the past five years is a testament to the dedication of our expert team,” said Randy Myeroff, president and CEO at Cohen & Company. “We are committed to the success of both our staff and our clients.”

To be eligible for the Cascade Growth Award, companies must be located in Summit, Medina, Stark, Portage, Wayne, Ashland or Holmes counties. Companies must have seen an increase in sales by 100 percent or $5 million; or an increase in full-time employees, by 50 percent or 25 employees, over the past five years.
