Akron (Ohio) – Kim Palmer, Principal at Cohen & Company, was awarded the “30 for the Future” award from the Greater Akron Chamber. This award honors young professionals (ages 25-39) whose stellar contributions impact their industries and the Greater Akron Region.

An independent Advisory Council then selects the award recipients based on the finalists’ Leadership Documents, which showcase professional and community accomplishments, team-building, leadership and creativity in overcoming obstacles.

“Kim’s achievements and commitment to the firm has made her a strong leader at Cohen & Company and within our local community”, said Mike Kolk, Partner-in-Charge of the Tax Department of Cohen & Company.
