Cohen & Company Chosen as NorthCoast 99 Elite

CLEVELAND, Ohio – Cohen & Company is excited to announce it has been selected as a winner of the coveted 2011 NorthCoast 99 award. The award recognizes the top 99 companies in northeast Ohio that attract, reward and retain top performers. This is the third time the firm has received the award.

“We always say that good enough is never good enough,” said Randy Myeroff, president and CEO at Cohen & Company. “We want to be the best, and that means having the best professionals so we can deliver the best service to our clients. We take great pride in building a culture that enables top talent to thrive. This award recognizes the superior efforts of our team.”

The NorthCoast 99 program was developed and is presented by ERC. ERC is Northeast Ohio’s leading and largest professional organization dedicated to HR practices, programs and services. Since 1999, the program has recognized nearly 400 organizations for their ability to maintain great workplaces that support the attraction, retention and motivation of top performers.
